Sikkil Gurucharan and Rita Sahai
Carnatic and Hindustani vocal music with guests

Ravindra Bharathy Sridharan, mridangam | Kanwaljit Kalsi, harmonium | VVS Murari, violin
Nikhil Pandya, tabla | Rachel Unterseher, viola

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 2015  7:00 PM
VANDERHOEF STUDIO THEATRE, MONDAVI CENTER

Sikkil Gurucharan is visiting UC Davis on a Fulbright Scholarship, teaching special classes in the departments of Religious Studies and Music. Gurucharan is a carnatic vocalist who has become one of the most respected and well-known artists of this tradition since his first performance in 1994.

Rita Sahai, an acclaimed composer, performer and teacher, tours throughout the U.S., Canada, the U.K., and India. She is also in demand at recording studios at home and abroad, where she graciously lends her voice to many diverse musical projects.

$8 STUDENTS & CHILDREN, $20 ADULTS | STANDARD SEATING