Applications are invited for:

TEMPORARY LECTURER POSITION IN THE ART STUDIO PROGRAM
CERAMICS

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT DAVIS

The Department of Art and Art History at the University of California, Davis, invites applications for a lecturer position in the Art Studio Program to teach Art 143: STUDIO PROJECTS during the Spring quarter (March 24 - June 9) of 2016. A lecturer teaches a three-hour studio class twice a week and holds regular office hours for his or her students. This course will focus on materials, form, content, history, and process in a way that takes advantage of the instructor’s strengths, interests, and background. Qualifications include an MFA or equivalent, and teaching experience beyond the TA level is required.

The course continues art studio concentration in building sculpture out of clay. Students will have a basic understanding of the material and technical skills, having satisfied the ART 8 prerequisite. Discussions around projects include historical and conceptual ideas necessary for contemporary practice. Applicants should be artists whose primary work is ceramic sculpture and possess a deep understanding of the material with expertise in building; glaze making, glazing and surface articulation techniques at all firing ranges; and gas kiln firing. Applicants must be current practicing artists.

Closing date for applications is September 15, 2015. Please submit the following materials to the recruitment website: https://recruit.ucdavis.edu/apply/JPF00560

- Letter of intent
- Teaching statement
- Resume
- 20 images of recent works uploaded onto recruit website (no larger than 3MB JPEG file and 3000 pixels on the longer side)
- A detailed image list including titles, dimensions, materials, date of completion, and description if necessary
- List of classes you have taught, where, and when
- Samples of course syllabi
- Three names of academic references with contact information

This is a non-tenured, temporary position: the appointments to the title of Lecturer are self-terminating (no further notice on non-reappointment will be forthcoming) and do not create an obligation on the part of the University either to extend or renew the appointment outlined above. Any reappointment will be preceded by an assessment.

Proof of citizenship or eligibility for US employment required prior to employment (Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986).

This position is subject to UC policy and is covered by a collective bargaining unit.
