Applications are invited for:

TEMPORARY LECTURER POSITION IN THE ART STUDIO PROGRAM
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT DAVIS

The Department of Art and Art History at the University of California, Davis, invites applications for a lecturer position in the Art Studio Program to teach Beginning Photography: B&W during the Winter and Spring quarters of 2016 (January 2016 – June 2016). The selected lecturer will teach a three-hour studio class twice a week and hold regular office hours for his or her students each quarter.

These classes introduce students to techniques in the dark room and digital methods, along with the historical and conceptual background necessary for contemporary practice all levels of undergraduate teaching. These courses should integrate practical skills with conceptual foundations in a way that takes advantage of the instructor's strengths, interests and background. Applicants should be artists with professional practices and expertise in the field of photography. Qualifications include an MFA and teaching experience beyond the TA level.

Closing date for applications is September 15, 2015. Please submit the following materials to the recruitment website: https://recruit.ucdavis.edu/apply/JPF00561

- Letter of intent
- Teaching statement
- Resume
- 20 images of recent works uploaded onto recruit website (no larger than 3MB JPEG file and 3000 pixels on the longer side)
- A detailed image list including titles, dimensions, materials, date of completion, and description if necessary
- List of classes you have taught, where, and when
- Samples of course syllabi
- Three names of academic references with contact information

This is a non-tenured, temporary position: the appointments to the title of Lecturer are self-terminating (no further notice on non-reappointment will be forthcoming) and do not create an obligation on the part of the University either to extend or renew the appointment outlined above. Any reappointment will be preceded by an assessment.

Proof of citizenship or eligibility for US employment required prior to employment (Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986).

This position is subject to UC policy and is covered by a collective bargaining unit.