Applications are invited for:

TEMPORARY LECTURER POSITION IN THE ART STUDIO PROGRAM

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT DAVIS

The Department of Art & Art History at the University of California, Davis invites applications for a lecturer position in the Art Studio Program to teach Beginning Photography: Black & White for the Spring quarter of 2017 (March 2017 – June 2017). The selected lecturer will teach a three-hour studio class twice a week and schedule regular office hours.

These classes introduce students to the technical, aesthetic, and conceptual foundations of photography as an art form. Selected Lecturers are invited to design their syllabi to integrate technical instruction with conceptual and historical content that takes advantage of their strengths, interests and background. Qualified applicants will have an MFA, teaching experience beyond the TA level, a contemporary professional art practice, and expertise in analog film photography.

Closing date for applications is September 30, 2016. Please submit the following materials to the recruitment website: https://recruit.ucdavis.edu/apply/JPF01004.

- Letter of intent
- Teaching statement
- Resume
- 20 images of recent works uploaded onto recruit website (no larger than 3MB JPEG file and 3000 pixels on the longer side)
- A detailed image list including titles, dimensions, materials, date of completion, and description if necessary
- List of classes you have taught, where, and when
- Samples of course syllabi
- Three names of academic references with contact information

This is a non-tenured, temporary position: the appointments to the title of Lecturer are self-terminating (no further notice on non-reappointment will be forthcoming) and do not create an obligation on the part of the University either to extend or renew the appointment outlined above. Any reappointment will be preceded by an assessment.

Proof of citizenship or eligibility for US employment required prior to employment (Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986).

This position is subject to UC policy and is covered by a collective bargaining unit.
