The Wise Woman and the Virgin: Gender and Ritual in the Ancient Hittite Empire

Dr. Billie Jean Collins
Lecturer, Middle Eastern Studies
Emory University

Tuesday, February 24th
4:00pm—6:00pm
Andrew’s Conference Room
2203 Social Sciences & Humanities Bldg.

Billie Jean Collins received her Ph.D in Near Eastern Languages and Civilizations at Yale University.

She is author of The Hittites and Their World (SBL 2007) and is currently preparing an edition of the Hittite rituals from western and southern Anatolia.

Co-sponsors for this event:
Art History, Classics, Middle East/South Asia Studies, Religious Studies, the Study of Religion Graduate Program, and the Turkey Studies Research Cluster of the Davis Humanities Institute