The Who’s Tommy

Director/Choreographer’s Notes

THE WHO’S TOMMY.
The rock and roll CONCEPT ALBUM.
The musical that changed how theatre embraced rock and roll.
The musical that wed ROCK and OPERA.

When Pete Townsend, guitar player for the fledgling rock and roll group The Who, started to write TOMMY at the ripe age of 22, it was as a cathartic and soul searching experience about a young boy’s journey through trauma who emerges as a world hero. It was to become the music that helped shape a generation and a style of music in the ‘60s.

Nearly 30 years after the album knocked the music world on its side, TOMMY, THE MUSICAL did the same thing for the Broadway stage. The Rock Opera was born in the mid-‘90s, paving the way for new musical voices to re-create and re-think the Broadway vernacular.

It is a musical born of youth, fueled by controversy and uphill battles, and carrying a powerful message of hope and belief. It is of a specific era, and yet universally ripe for any age, any time.

PERFORMER BIOS

MALIA ABAYON (The Gypsy/Acid Queen) is a fourth-year Dramatic Art major and Human Development minor. Credits at UC Davis include Maria The Cleaning Lady in The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee, a dancer in La Muerte Azul (Main Stage DanceTheatre Festival 2010) and Heather in Blue Jay’s Song (THIRDeYE Theatre Festival 2010). Other credits include Cookie in Studio 301’s production of Rumors, and Cassandra in the Hydrama adaptation of Agamemnon.

OLUFUNMILAYO O. ALABI (Ensemble) is a fourth-year double major in Dramatic Art and Design. She is delighted to be working with Mindy Cooper for the third time as she was recently in The 25 Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee and was assistant costume designer for Oklahoma! in 2009. Past credits include Hinterland, directed by Granada Artist Lucy Gough, The Love Rock Musical Hair, directed by Stephanie Hankinson, Corpo/Ilicto: The Post-Human Society 6.9, directed by Granada Artist Guillermo Gomez Peña, A Midsummer Night’s Dream, directed by Stephanie Hankinson, and Fate and Spinoza, directed by Granada Artist Rinde Eckert. She hopes to continue her passion for the arts in the future through acting, fashion and graphic design.

JULIE ATHANS (Ensemble/Mrs. Simpson) is excited to be a part of such a fun production with so many great friends. She is a third-year Communication and Film Studies double major and is a member of the UC Davis all-female a cappella group, The Spokes. Julie performed in Studio 301’s production of Hair last spring, and in Oklahoma! at Mondavi’s Jackson Hall. She would like to thank Mindy for being such an inspirational director and her family and friends for their continuous support. Slim, you’re the best!

JIMMY BEALL (Cousin Kevin) is a second-year student at UC Davis, studying Economics and Statistics. An athlete in his teens, Jimmy auditioned for his first musical The Pirates of Penzance, following the recommendation of a friend who told him they didn’t have enough guys. Since then, spring has been musical season for Jimmy. Recent credits include Sweeney Todd (Judge Turpin), Godspell (Judas), and Hair (Ensemble). Jimmy is a brother of Theta Chi Fraternity and current Scholarship Chair of the Interfraternity Council.

OLUFUNMILAYO O. ALABI (Ensemble) is a fourth-year double major in Dramatic Art and Design. She is delighted to be working with Mindy Cooper for the third time as she was recently in The 25 Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee and was assistant costume designer for Oklahoma! in 2009. She hopes to continue her passion for the arts in the future through acting, fashion and graphic design.

MICHAEL DAVISON (Uncle Ernie) is graduating from the MFA Acting program this June and is founder/artistic director of San Francisco StageWorks. He is an actor/director/educator foremost, but has also had success as a playwright and composer. With theatrical roots in Washington D.C. and Dallas, the SF Bay Area has been his home for the last twelve years where he has been on stage or behind the scenes in productions with A.C.T., CalShakes, Theatre Rhinoceros, SF StageWorks, SF Lyric Opera, and others. UC Davis productions include assistant artistic direction for THIRDeYE Theatre Festival, ensemble work in The Matter of Taste, and Trigorin in The Seagull. More info at michael davison.com

MATTHEW DUNIVAN (Narrator/Tommy) is a fourth-year Dramatic Art major. Past roles include Leon Czolgosz (Assassins), William Barfee (The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee), Lysander/Bottom (A Midsummer Night’s Dream), and Cinderella’s Prince (Into the Woods). Upon graduation, Matthew will be joining the class of 2014 at Columbia University School of the Arts in pursuit of an MFA in Acting.

MARK C. FERRANDO (Lover/Second Lad) is a fourth-year Dramatic Art major and Managerial Economics minor. His passion in theatre has lead him throughout the department as lighting technician, company manager, actor, and stage manager. He is excited to work again with Mindy after Oklahoma! in 2009. Past shows include Come Hell and High Water, Twelfth Night (Antonio), Romeo and Juliet (Mercutio), Hair (Claude Hooper Bukowski). Hope you are ready to rock.

CHRISTOPHER MCCOY (Captain Walker) is a second-year student in the PhD program in Performance Studies researching the politics of musical theatre. Prior to attending UC Davis, Chris earned a Master of Fine Arts degree from Emerson College in Boston where he directed Nicky Silver’s Pterodactyls, a Theatre-for-Young Audiences tour of Sangre de un Angel, and artistic directed a festival of original student work. Chris’ professional experience includes education, artistic, and administrative positions at Seattle Children’s Theatre, Atlanta’s Alliance Theatre, the Denver Center Theater Company, OPERA America, St. Louis Opera Theatre, San Diego Opera, Austin Lyric Opera, and Theater League, Inc.

KEVIN MORIARTY (Hawker) is a recent graduate of the drama program at UC Davis. Most recently his original choreography was shown at The Edge Performance Festival in April. Next fall he plans to move to NYC to be a poor artist. He urges you to keep it real in all your endeavors.

TARI OSAISAI (Minister’s Wife) is a Communication and Dramatic Art double major. She is excited to be part of yet another wonderful production here at UC Davis. She couldn’t imagine doing anything more fulfilling than performing and is grateful to work with such talented and amazing people. She hopes to one day become a professional working actress and producer. Keep your fingers crossed!

RYLEY STEGGALL (Four-year old Tommy) is thrilled to be in her first production at UC Davis. This is her third show in what will surely be a long career on stage. Being a seven-year old girl playing a four-year old boy has been quite a challenge, but like everything else she has tried, she conquered it. Thanks to her family!

MARK JOSEPH SUAREZ (Ensemble) is a Dramatic Art major who transferred from Middlesex County College in New Jersey. Tommy is his second production here at UC Davis; the first one being Gallatea. Other productions include AIDA, One Flew Over the Cuckoo’s Nest and The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas.

ALISON SUNDSTROM (Mrs. Walker) is a second-year studying Dramatic Art and English. Her previous roles at UC Davis include The Girl (Come Hell and High Water), Rona (The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee), Crissy (Hair), and Helena & Snug (A Midsummer Night’s Dream). Other favorite roles include Olivia (Twelfth Night), Marian (The Music Man), Carmelle (The Miss Firecracker Contest), Cassie (A Chorus Line), and Mary Warren (The Crucible). She would like to thank her family and friends for all their love and support.

TAMERA TOMAKILI (Ensemble) is a fourth-year Neurobiology, Physiology, and Behavior and Dramatic Art double major who is excited to be working with Mindy Cooper for the first time. She has truly enjoyed working with this amazing cast. Musicals have always been a love of hers. And she is excited that she is a part of this wonderful experience. Tommy has definitely awakened the rock and roll side of her.

ELIZABETH TREMAINE (Sally Simpson/Ensemble) is happy to be back with UC Davis Department of Theatre and Dance! At UC Davis, she was seen in last winter’s Hinterland (Anatomist’s Assistant), last summer’s The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee (Olive), and 2009’s Oklahoma! Her favorite roles include Wendla in Spring Awakening (Studio 301 Productions), Cindy in Suds, Sally in You’re a Good Man, Charlie Brown (Crossroads Theatre), and Sharpay in High School Musical (California Theatre Arts). She will be graduating this spring with a BS in Psychology, along with minors in both Dramatic Art and Neuroscience. Please enjoy the show.

JAZZ TRICE (Specialist/Ensemble) is a recent UC Davis graduate with a degree in Dramatic Art performing in his last show here. Favorite roles include Hud (Hair: The American Tribal Love Rock Musical), Schroeder (You’re a Good Man Charlie Brown: Revised), Backwards Soldier (#5 The Angry Red Drum), Jamie Hudson (Empty All The Boxes), and Chip Tolentino (The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee). While at UCD, he’s been on the board of producers for Studio 301 Productions for two years when he has also served as peer adviser for the Department of Theatre and Dance. Rock out and enjoy the show!

JOHN UNRATH (Minister/Ensemble) is excited to be returning to Main Theatre in The Who’s Tommy. Having begun his undergraduate degree as a Music and Dramatic Art double major, John was a member of the Kantorei of the Chapel of the Resurrection of Valparaiso University and the Soul Purpose liturgical drama troupe. He has also performed with the Cambridge University Musical Society, the St. Margaret Society of Queens’ College, the Trinity College Musical Society and was a member and featured soloist with the Queens’ College Chapel Choir of the University of Cambridge. Past stage credits include Oklahoma! (UC Davis), Hair (Studio 301), Godspell, Into the Woods, The Most Happy Fella, and 12 Angry Jurors. He is currently a PhD student in the UCD Department of Psychology studying the psychology of religious fundamentalism and violence.

RACHEL WAGNER (Ensemble/Nurse) is delighted to make her UC Davis debut in Tommy! She is a first year Dramatic Art student, hoping to double major in Film Studies. She was last seen as Ilse in Studio 301’s Spring Awakening. Favorite roles include Dorothy (The Wizard of Oz), Cinderella (Rodgers & Hammerstein’s Cinderella), Liesl (The Sound of Music), and Helen Keller (The Miracle Worker). Hope you came ready to rock out!

CONCEPT ARTIST BIOS

KARA BRANCH (Costume Designer) is a second-year MFA candidate studying Costume Design. Most recently at UC Davis, she costume designed for Come Hell and High Water and assistant costume designed for Elephant’s Graveyard and Bluebeard’s Castle at Mondavi Center’s Jackson Hall. Other UC Davis credits include A Midsummer Night’s Dream, Who Are You? (2010 Main Stage Dance/Theatre Festival).

KELLY CONARD (Lighting Designer) is a second-year Lighting Design MFA candidate at UCD. She attended Grossmont Community College in her hometown of San Diego where she worked with a non-profit Shakespeare company, Poor Players, for three years. Kelly transferred to UC Santa Cruz where she received her BA in Theatre in ‘09. Kelly has worked as an administration intern and electrician at Shakespeare Santa Cruz for two seasons and more recently interned with multi-million dollar Los Angeles based design firm Thinkwell Group. Past design work includes Love’s Fire, Carry the Tiger to the Mountain, Venus, and Faggot Arabesque at UC Santa Cruz. In her graduate studies here at UC Davis, Kelly has been pleased to be involved in A Midsummer Night’s Dream, Who Are You?, Gallathea, and just this month The Moby Dick Variations.
TODD HARPER (Stage Manager) graduated in March with a double major in Psychology and Dramatic Art. Credits at UC Davis include stage manager for The Matter of Taste and The Readers, production stage manager for Solo Explorations and THIRDeYE Theatre Festival 2009. Other credits include production assistant for Songs for a New World, West Side Story, and Sylvia at the Pacific Conservatory of the Performing Arts (PCPA). Immediately following Tommy, he will begin a one year contract at PCPA as an assistant stage manager for Hairspray, the American premiere of Stephen Schwartz’ My Fairytale, and A Christmas Carol.

KOURTNEY LAMPEDECCHIO (Scenic Designer) started her theatre career at Santa Rosa Junior College after struggling to determine what she wanted to do as a Fine Art major. Kourtney eventually transferred to UCLA and received her BA in Theatre. She immediately took a position at the Denver Center for the Performing Arts, first as an intern, then as a staff scenic artist. She is now a first-year MFA candidate in Scenic Design here at UC Davis. Her most recent UC Davis production was Hinterland directed by Granada Artist Lucy Gough.

CHRISTIAN SAVAGE (Sound Designer) is a fourth-year Managerial Economics student pursuing a minor in Dramatic Art. At UC Davis he has designed sound for productions including Katya Kamotskaia’s The Seagull, Rinde Eckert’s Fate and Spinoza, Philip Kan Gotanda’s #5 The Angry Red Drum, and Oklahoma! directed by Mindy Cooper. He currently works as a live sound technician. Prior to UC Davis, Christian designed sound for high school and community theatres, and ran sound for musical groups at church and concert venues. During the summer of 2007, he worked as a sound assistant for Music Circus in Sacramento.

Christian grew up in Rocklin, California and graduated from Rocklin High School in 2007.

GRAHAM SOBELMAN (Music Director) has music directed Celebration, Hedwig and the Angry Inch, It’s Only Life, tick, tick...BOOM!, and They’re Playing Our Song for New Helvetia Theatre. Also: A Christmas Carol (Sacramento Theatre Company), The Last Five Years (HighWire Productions), Man of La Mancha and The Who’s Tommy (UC Davis), Once Upon a Mattress (Woodland Opera House) and I Love You, You’re Perfect... Now Change (Capital Stage). Graham conducted Gregg Coffin’s rightnexttome (B Street Theatre) and Assassins (Artistic Differences). He is most known, however, for his eponymous cabaret series Graham-A-Rama. Recordings: Ain’t Betty: This Is Ain’t Betty, Andrew Heringer Band: Under California Skies. REED WAGNER (Projections Designer) has primarily worked at UC Davis as stage manager where his credits include Sideshow Physical Theatre’s Tilly NoBody and Elephant’s Graveyard, and the Department of Theatre & Dance’s The Seagull. Reed also works as a lighting and sound designer for various groups across Sacramento and the Bay Area, including UC Davis Theatre & Dance and Shift Theatre.
