Applications are invited for:

TEMPORARY LECTURER POSITION IN THE ART STUDIO PROGRAM
SCULPTURE

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT DAVIS

The Department of Art and Art History at the University of California, Davis, invites applications for a lecturer position in the Art Studio Program to teach SCULPTURE classes during the 2016-2017 school year (9/2016 - 6/2017). Courses will include Art 5 Beginning Sculpture & Art 151 Intermediate Sculpture. Other possible courses might include Art 152A Advanced Sculpture: Studio Projects; Art 152D Advanced Sculpture: Metals. A lecturer teaches a three-hour studio class twice a week and holds regular office hours for his or her students.

These classes introduce students to techniques of sculpture along with the historical and conceptual background necessary for contemporary practice for all levels of undergraduate teaching. These courses should integrate practical skills with conceptual foundations in a way that takes advantage of the instructor's strengths, interests and background. Applicants should be artists with professional practices and expertise in the field of sculpture. Qualifications include an MFA and teaching experience beyond the TA level.

Closing date for applications is May 30, 2016. Please submit the following materials to the recruitment website: https://recruit.ucdavis.edu/apply/JPF00997.

- Letter of intent
- Teaching statement
- Resume
- 20 images of recent works uploaded onto recruit website (no larger than 3MB JPEG file and 3000 pixels on the longer side)
- A detailed image list including titles, dimensions, materials, date of completion, and description if necessary
- List of classes you have taught, where, and when
- Samples of course syllabi
- Three names of academic references with contact information

This is a non-tenured, temporary position: the appointments to the title of Lecturer are self-terminating (no further notice on non-reappointment will be forthcoming) and do not create an obligation on the part of the University either to extend or renew the appointment outlined above. Any reappointment will be preceded by an assessment. We are also conducting searches in Painting/Drawing, Photography, Video, and Ceramics and will consider offering positions across disciplines if qualified. Please indicate your interest if you would like to be considered for courses in these areas.

Proof of citizenship or eligibility for US employment required prior to employment (Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986).

This position is subject to UC policy and is covered by a collective bargaining unit.
