

The San Francisco History Center of the San Francisco Public Library presents

Architecture and San Francisco's Fairs

Learn about the architecture of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition (PPIE) of 1915 & the Golden Gate International Exposition (GGIE) of 1939-1940 during two talks - -

Automobiles and Arches at the PPIE: Mark D. Kessler, Associate Professor at UC Davis, speaks about the unlikely affinity between the transformative and forward-looking automobile and the romantic incarnation of historical architecture on view at the PPIE.

Regionalism and the Architecture of the 1939 GGIE: Andrew Shanken, Associate Professor of Architecture at UC Berkeley, discusses the architecture of the GGIE in light of the many strands of regionalism expressed at the fair.
