

Careers in the Arts

A BROWN-BAG LUNCH SERIES

Join us in a conversation with Kamal Zargar
Development Associate for Stewardship and Communications, National Gallery of Art

Kamal Zargar completed his M.A. at UC Davis in 2012, studying art institutions and Iranian art. Since graduation, Kamal has been working in the Development Office at the National Gallery of Art in Washington, DC, where he had previously participated in a summer graduate internship program. Kamal works closely with museum curators and the education staff to produce publications as part of stewardship efforts of current and new donors.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 9th from 12:00-1:00
EVERSON 148

Questions? Email lctheis@ucdavis.edu

Sponsored by the Department of Art and Art History and the Visual Resources Facility