Local, Regional, and Virtual Events

Visiting Artist Lecture Series, Andrea Bowers
April 17, 2021, 4:30-6:00 pm
Visiting Artist Lecture Series, Arnold Joseph Kemp
in Conversation with Sampada Aranke
April 17, 2021, 10-11:30 am PST

Visiting Artist Lecture Series, Andrea Bowers
April 22, 2021, 4:30-6:00 pm

Taline Grigorian, In Memory of The Ancients in Modern Iran
April 22, 2021, 10-11:30 am PST

Mapping the Modern World
April 17, 2021, 1:00-2:00 PM PST

Visiting Artist Lecture Series, Arnold Joseph Kemp
in Conversation with Sampada Aranke
April 23, 2021, 4:30-6:00 pm

Save the Date
Visiting Artist Lecture Series
April 29, 2021, 4:30-6:00 pm

Other Events

Daniel Troy (BA 1995) Art Studio and Art History 2021, Double the Edges
March 11, 2021-April 29, 2021, Thursday-Friday, 12-6pm

Alum Daniel Troy is participating in the exhibition "Double the Edges" at LA Studio Projects for Exhibitionists. To connect the dots and begin some new "trends" Troy eagerly volunteers his unpredictable and unvarying creative approach to those who will/can.

Departmental News

The New York Studio School Alumni Journal recently featured Professor Peter Hessendorfer in their feature, "Mira Schendel's Resplendent Line: From the 1950s to Today."

Professor Kathleen Barrett was recently interviewed by the Daily News for her work in Social Art.

The Pence Gallery's Art History Lecture Series will host a virtual talk by alum Mariah Briel. Her presentation will explore the history of maps as art, and how they work as markers, literally and symbolically, of power and identity. You can register for this event by emailing the Pence Gallery.

The Pence Gallery's Art History Lecture Series will host a virtual talk by alum Mariah Briel. Her presentation will explore the history of maps as art, and how they work as markers, literally andsymbolically, of power and identity. You can register for this event
by emailing the Pence Gallery.

The Pence Gallery's Art History Lecture Series will host a virtual talk by alum Mariah Briel. Her presentation will explore the history of maps as art, and how they work as markers, literally and symbolically, of power and identity. You can register for this event
by emailing the Pence Gallery.

The Pence Gallery's Art History Lecture Series will host a virtual talk by alum Mariah Briel. Her presentation will explore the history of maps as art, and how they work as markers, literally and symbolically, of power and identity. You can register for this event
by emailing the Pence Gallery.

The Pence Gallery's Art History Lecture Series will host a virtual talk by alum Mariah Briel. Her presentation will explore the history of maps as art, and how they work as markers, literally and symbolically, of power and identity. You can register for this event
by emailing the Pence Gallery.

Visit Departmental News for more events.

Looking For More Arts News?
To learn more about what's happening in the arts in the College of Letters & Science read their monthly newsletter using the link above.

View more

Please Note
Current students, faculty and alumni, let us know about upcoming events, shows, and news of your own. To submit events email theis@ucdavis.edu or call 530-752-3215.

Follow Us

Follow Art Studio

Follow Art History

Subscribe

Manage your preferences | Opt out
Current students, faculty and alumni, let us know about upcoming events, shows, and news of your own. To submit events email theis@ucdavis.edu or call 530-752-3215.

Follow Us

Follow Art Studio

Follow Art History

Subscribe

Manage your preferences | Opt out

The Pence Gallery's Art History Lecture Series will host a virtual talk by alum Mariah Briel. Her presentation will explore the history
of maps as art, and how they work as markers, literally and symbolically, of power and identity. You can register for this event
by emailing the Pence Gallery.

The Pence Gallery's Art History Lecture Series will host a virtual talk by alum Mariah Briel. Her presentation will explore the history of maps as art, and how they work as markers, literally and symbolically, of power and identity. You can register for this event
by emailing the Pence Gallery.

The Pence Gallery's Art History Lecture Series will host a virtual talk by alum Mariah Briel. Her presentation will explore the history of maps as art, and how they work as markers, literally and symbolically, of power and identity. You can register for this event
by emailing the Pence Gallery.

The Pence Gallery's Art History Lecture Series will host a virtual talk by alum Mariah Briel. Her presentation will explore the history of maps as art, and how they work as markers, literally and symbolically, of power and identity. You can register for this event
by emailing the Pence Gallery.

The Pence Gallery's Art History Lecture Series will host a virtual talk by alum Mariah Briel. Her presentation will explore the history of maps as art, and how they work as markers, literally and symbolically, of power and identity. You can register for this event
by emailing the Pence Gallery.

Visit Departmental News for more events.

Looking For More Arts News?
To learn more about what's happening in the arts in the College of Letters & Science read their monthly newsletter using the link above.

Follow Us

Follow Art Studio

Follow Art History

Subscribe

Manage your preferences | Opt out
Current students, faculty and alumni, let us know about upcoming events, shows, and news of your own. To submit events email theis@ucdavis.edu or call 530-752-3215.