October 2021

Local and Regional Events

Tanner Etter: The California Studio
Saturday, October 16 at 4:30 pm
Community Education Lecture, Merzbacher Studio, Davies
Tanner Etter is a multimedia and book artist based in Brooklyn, NY. In his case, acculturation, script and performance to reimagine traditional Western education and representation of the Latinx experience. Featuring a screening of his new film. Free, reservations required.

Raul de Nieves: The California Studio
Saturday, October 16 at 4:30 pm
Community Education Lecture, Merzbacher Studio, Davies
Raul de Nieves is a multidisciplinary artist and curator. In his talk, he will discuss his recent exhibition at the Museum of Contemporary Art Chicago, and his upcoming show with the Institute of Contemporary Art, Los Angeles.

Jordie Ignatius
Art Studio Artistic Lecture Series
October 15 - 17, 2021, 5:00-6:00 pm, Online
Jordie Ignatius is a sculptural artist and educator. In this talk, he will discuss his recent work and its relationship to his broader practice.

Save the Date

Visiting Artist Lecture Series
March 3, 2022 - Eyringfield Noblegard
April 7, 2022 - Goran Batic

Template Catalog in Art History
February 28, 2022 - Victoria and Albert, Press Culture, Western Asia and London Montmartre in the 1930s

Other Events

Any Lincoln (B.A. '15), Solo Show
September 15 - October 31, 2021 - Nevada City, NV
Any, Linton’s solo show features ten new paintings of agrarian landscapes. These new paintings, with their bright colors and bold forms, explore the phenomena of light reflection and refraction.

Professor Robin Hill, co-curates “Going to the Meadow”
September 15 - December 30, 2021 - ArtYard, Frenchtown, NJ
Robin Hill has co-curated a new show, “Going to the Meadow,” with Ulla Warchol. This is a mid-century modernist exhibition and vernissage district collaborative group of emerging and established artists in residence at ArtYard. Participating artists include Lisa Rybovich Cralle (M.F.A.'11) and Angela Willetts (M.F.A. '16).

Professor Site Warter, “To Context”
September 16 - November 3, 2021 - Provo Street Gallery, New York City
Site Warter is highlighting his recent work at Provo Street Gallery. If you can’t make it to the show, you can see it online here.

Departmental News

The California Studio: Merzbacher Studio Residencies transform the Space. For more about the program, go straight to the words and writing artist-in-residence \non October 15

How Nancy Ranali (Ph.D. '01) was spotlighted on the recent cover of Art News. There is the transformative power of Art News, but at the heart of the interview is the relevance of her career. Education of UC Davis, seeking the years. "For a very successful, generous artist and the future of the show," her remarks are here.

Professor Robin Hill, co-curates “Going to the Meadow”
September 15 - December 30, 2021 - ArtYard, Frenchtown, NJ
Robin Hill has co-curated a new show, “Going to the Meadow,” with Ulla Warchol. This is a mid-century modernist exhibition and vernissage district collaborative group of emerging and established artists in residence at ArtYard. Participating artists include Lisa Rybovich Cralle (M.F.A.'11) and Angela Willetts (M.F.A. '16).

Professor Site Warter, “To Context”
September 16 - November 3, 2021 - Provo Street Gallery, New York City
Site Warter is highlighting his recent work at Provo Street Gallery. If you can’t make it to the show, you can see it online here.

Departmental News

The California Studio: Merzbacher Studio Residencies transform the Space. For more about the program, go straight to the words and writing artist-in-residence \non October 15

How Nancy Ranali (Ph.D. '01) was spotlighted on the recent cover of Art News. There is the transformative power of Art News, but at the heart of the interview is the relevance of her career. Education of UC Davis, seeking the years. "For a very successful, generous artist and the future of the show," her remarks are here.

Professor Robin Hill, co-curates “Going to the Meadow”
September 15 - December 30, 2021 - ArtYard, Frenchtown, NJ
Robin Hill has co-curated a new show, “Going to the Meadow,” with Ulla Warchol. This is a mid-century modernist exhibition and vernissage district collaborative group of emerging and established artists in residence at ArtYard. Participating artists include Lisa Rybovich Cralle (M.F.A.'11) and Angela Willetts (M.F.A. '16).

Professor Site Warter, “To Context”
September 16 - November 3, 2021 - Provo Street Gallery, New York City
Site Warter is highlighting his recent work at Provo Street Gallery. If you can’t make it to the show, you can see it online here.

Departmental News

The California Studio: Merzbacher Studio Residencies transform the Space. For more about the program, go straight to the words and writing artist-in-residence \non October 15

How Nancy Ranali (Ph.D. '01) was spotlighted on the recent cover of Art News. There is the transformative power of Art News, but at the heart of the interview is the relevance of her career. Education of UC Davis, seeking the years. "For a very successful, generous artist and the future of the show," her remarks are here.

Professor Robin Hill, co-curates “Going to the Meadow”
September 15 - December 30, 2021 - ArtYard, Frenchtown, NJ
Robin Hill has co-curated a new show, “Going to the Meadow,” with Ulla Warchol. This is a mid-century modernist exhibition and vernissage district collaborative group of emerging and established artists in residence at ArtYard. Participating artists include Lisa Rybovich Cralle (M.F.A.'11) and Angela Willetts (M.F.A. '16).

Professor Site Warter, “To Context”
September 16 - November 3, 2021 - Provo Street Gallery, New York City
Site Warter is highlighting his recent work at Provo Street Gallery. If you can’t make it to the show, you can see it online here.

Departmental News

The California Studio: Merzbacher Studio Residencies transform the Space. For more about the program, go straight to the words and writing artist-in-residence \non October 15

How Nancy Ranali (Ph.D. '01) was spotlighted on the recent cover of Art News. There is the transformative power of Art News, but at the heart of the interview is the relevance of her career. Education of UC Davis, seeking the years. "For a very successful, generous artist and the future of the show," her remarks are here.

Professor Robin Hill, co-curates “Going to the Meadow”
September 15 - December 30, 2021 - ArtYard, Frenchtown, NJ
Robin Hill has co-curated a new show, “Going to the Meadow,” with Ulla Warchol. This is a mid-century modernist exhibition and vernissage district collaborative group of emerging and established artists in residence at ArtYard. Participating artists include Lisa Rybovich Cralle (M.F.A.'11) and Angela Willetts (M.F.A. '16).

Professor Site Warter, “To Context”
September 16 - November 3, 2021 - Provo Street Gallery, New York City
Site Warter is highlighting his recent work at Provo Street Gallery. If you can’t make it to the show, you can see it online here.

Departmental News

The California Studio: Merzbacher Studio Residencies transform the Space. For more about the program, go straight to the words and writing artist-in-residence \non October 15

How Nancy Ranali (Ph.D. '01) was spotlighted on the recent cover of Art News. There is the transformative power of Art News, but at the heart of the interview is the relevance of her career. Education of UC Davis, seeking the years. "For a very successful, generous artist and the future of the show," her remarks are here.

Professor Robin Hill, co-curates “Going to the Meadow”
September 15 - December 30, 2021 - ArtYard, Frenchtown, NJ
Robin Hill has co-curated a new show, “Going to the Meadow,” with Ulla Warchol. This is a mid-century modernist exhibition and vernissage district collaborative group of emerging and established artists in residence at ArtYard. Participating artists include Lisa Rybovich Cralle (M.F.A.'11) and Angela Willetts (M.F.A. '16).

Professor Site Warter, “To Context”
September 16 - November 3, 2021 - Provo Street Gallery, New York City
Site Warter is highlighting his recent work at Provo Street Gallery. If you can’t make it to the show, you can see it online here.

Departmental News

The California Studio: Merzbacher Studio Residencies transform the Space. For more about the program, go straight to the words and writing artist-in-residence \non October 15

How Nancy Ranali (Ph.D. '01) was spotlighted on the recent cover of Art News. There is the transformative power of Art News, but at the heart of the interview is the relevance of her career. Education of UC Davis, seeking the years. "For a very successful, generous artist and the future of the show," her remarks are here.

Professor Robin Hill, co-curates “Going to the Meadow”
September 15 - December 30, 2021 - ArtYard, Frenchtown, NJ
Robin Hill has co-curated a new show, “Going to the Meadow,” with Ulla Warchol. This is a mid-century modernist exhibition and vernissage district collaborative group of emerging and established artists in residence at ArtYard. Participating artists include Lisa Rybovich Cralle (M.F.A.'11) and Angela Willetts (M.F.A. '16).

Professor Site Warter, “To Context”
September 16 - November 3, 2021 - Provo Street Gallery, New York City
Site Warter is highlighting his recent work at Provo Street Gallery. If you can’t make it to the show, you can see it online here.